CAMPBELL SELLS SODA FACTORY

City Trustee Disposes of Business
Here and Expects to Go to Arizona to Make His Home.

Ernest C. Campbell, soda manufacturer and Trustee of Sonoma City, has disposed of his business here, and is planning to locate at Phoenix, Arizona. The Star Soda Works, which Campbell has conducted in Sonoma for several years past, was purchased by L. F. Niemann of San Francisco, who has already taken possession. The new proprietor is a gentleman of pleasing personality, and has had long experience in the bottling business. He was formerly with the Bartlett Springs Company.

Mr. Niemann will bring his family here to reside, probably in the Davis residence, soon to be vacated by Dr. Tinsmaa.

Sonoma friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Campbell will be sorry to learn that they are planning to leave Sonoma and to remove to Arizona, where Mr. Campbell will go into the cotton-raising business. They have taken an active interest in social affairs here, and will be greatly missed by the community.

ENTERTAIN IN HONOR OF MAJOR HABEGGER, U. S. A.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Stein had as their guest over the last week-end Major J. Arnold Habegger of the Quartermaster's Corps, United States Army, who is stationed at the Presidio, San Francisco, and who had been up to Boyes Springs for a short stay. The Major is an old friend of Mr. Stein, and during his sojourn in the Valley thoroughly enjoyed his visit at the Stein home.

On Monday evening a number of friends were invited to meet the distinguished and widely-traveled army man, and a pleasant time was enjoyed, card-playing and a dainty spread being part of the evening's entertainment. Mrs. R. L. Watt carried off the honors at bridge, and Mrs. Adler took the consolation prize.

Those who participated in the pleasant affair were: Mr. and Mrs. Watt, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Adler, Dr. and Mrs. Hays, Major Habegger, Mrs. Barham, and Mr. and Mrs. Al Stein.

The Major expects to retire soon, and may decide to locate in Sonoma Valley with his family, who now reside at San Diego.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Lawrence and Mr. and Mrs. J. Coleman motored over from San Mateo county last week, and were guests at the Wicker home. Mr. Lawrence is manager of the Spring Valley Water Company's plant down the Peninsula.

DAUGHTER OF PIONEER LAKEVILLE FAMILY DIES

Death came suddenly Friday night to Miss Jennie Dowd at the Dowd ranch, Lakeville, where she had spent her life. Miss Dowd was one of the most widely known women in the county, and the news of her death was received with common sorrow. Friends will tender their condolence to the only sister, the last of the well-known family, who survives.

The life of the late Miss Dowd was filled with loving acts of kindness, and she was admired for her disposition that won for her many friends. In the Lakeville district, where the Dowd family has resided since pioneer days, there was the deepest sorrow when the news of her death was learned. Miss Dowd had never married, remaining at the old home to care for her aged father and other relatives. Within the last year and a half her father and her brother, John W. Dowd, passed away.

Miss Dowd was a devout member of the Catholic church. She was one of the oldest members of the Catholic Ladies' Aid Society, and always took great interest in the affairs of the organization.

Born in Sonoma county, the late Miss Dowd was about 56 years old. She was the eldest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dowd, and a sister of Mrs. Emma Walls and the late Frank Dowd, who was for many years Assessor of Sonoma county.

HIGH SCHOOL ORCHESTRA BENEFIT

The Proctor Concert Company is coming to town. They are high-class artists in song and music, and furnish a splendid program. The date is Monday, March 29th, and the place the Grammar School Auditorium. The concert is scheduled under the auspices of the Sonoma Valley High School, which receives forty per cent of the gross receipts. This will go for instruction purposes in developing a high school orchestra. Come not to support the orchestra, however, but to enjoy an evening of genuine entertainment.

LOCAL SCIOTS MOTOR TO BENICIA FOR BIG TIME

The following well-known Sciots journeyed to Benicia this week to participate in the initiation of Vallejo Pyramid members and to enjoy the banquet which followed: E. C. Coates, James Gottenberg, "Pop" Hibbard, E. C. Campbell, James McElney, Jack Noller, Ray Gottenberg and Julius Fochetti. Among the Vallejo initiates were the former popular Sonoma residents: Percy Carmer, William Van Hacht and Carl Van Hacht. The Sonoma delegation helped put them through, and saw to it that they rode the goat with all due solemnity.

MILLERICK BUYS RACE HORSES

Purchases Sixteen Thoroughbreds
from George Wingfield of Nevada.
Will Establish Breeding Farm Here.

Tom Millerick of Schellville returned home last week from Reno, Nevada, bringing with him a carload of sixteen thoroughbred horses which he purchased from the well-known millionaire, George Wingfield, whose breeding farm is located near Reno. He also secured some horses from the Nevada racing man, Lem Allen. They are a very classy-looking lot, and are by such well-known speed-producing sires as Irish Exile, Montgomery and Eddington.

Tom intends to "fit" them for the coming summer's racing in California. He is a firm believer in the future success of racing in this state, and after doing so well with the last bunch of thoroughbreds he purchased, he and his brother Jack have about decided to establish a breeding farm on a modest scale.

Two of their horses, Ben Payne and Von Dillon, are now racing at Tia Juana, and have met with great success, winning several races.

The boys are shipping a carload of twenty-five bucking horses and a carload of relay horses to Los Angeles for the big rodeo which is to be held there on the 21st to the 29th of this month. The horses will leave today (Saturday).

Jack Millerick has been confined to his bed for the last ten days with the "flu," but is now convalescent. He will leave for the Los Angeles rodeo on the 18th, if his health permits.

MASQUERADE BALL NEXT SATURDAY NIGHT

All arrangements for the big masquerade ball to be given by the American Legion Saturday evening, March 20th, at Union Hall, have been completed. All the neighboring Legion Posts and lodges, as well as all local lodges and fraternity orders, have been invited for the event, which promises to be one of the best dances ever given in Sonoma.

"Heinie Gentry's jazz band" of the Palace Hotel, San Francisco, has been engaged for the music. It is one of the best orchestras around the bay, Gentry having formerly played with Art Hickman. Entertainment, vocal and other, will be furnished by this talented aggregation.

Valuable prizes are offered for the best-dressed, most original, and best-sustained characters, for which many gay maskers have been planning their costumes. There will be special dance numbers, such as moonlight waltzes, grand march, circular two-steps, etc. The best of refreshments have been ordered, which will help to make the Legion dance the biggest event of the season.

BASEBALL GAME AT BOYES

The Salt Lake baseball team, in training at Boyes Springs, will meet a team from Mare Island Sunday at the Springs. A fifty-piece band and a lot of fans from the Navy Yard will arrive from Vallejo for the game.

ASK THAT JAIL SENTENCE BE COMMUTED

Attorneys for Mrs. Emma Fellers have made application at Washington, D. C., for the commutation of the jail sentence which confronts her, and will show through the report of eminent physicians the serious character of her illness and her failing health following two years' fight for vindication in the courts.

Accompanying the medical reports will be recommendations from prominent Sonoma Valley residents that clemency be shown Mrs. Fellers.

Prominent in this movement is Mrs. Theo. Richards, proprietor of the neighboring summer resort, Agua Caliente Springs, who as a neighbor could not stand by and see a woman suffer and be punished through the machinations of enemies, and as a result of what she believed to be an entrapment. Mrs. Richards, though formerly unfriendly to the rival resort proprietor, knew that enemies went out of their way to frame up a charge against Mrs. Fellers during war-time prohibition, and that, even after punishment was meted out to her, the same enemies were moving heaven and earth to punish her, going so far in their persecution as to impound the United States attorney to send her to jail as Mrs. Fellers lay almost sick unto death with the influenza.

The big-hearted, broad-minded Mrs. Richards, stirred with indignation at the whole proceedings, determined to appeal to the women of Sonoma Valley to demonstrate their spirit of Christianity and charity in behalf of the woman whom she was convinced had suffered and been punished enough at the hands of unscrupulous and self-seeking enemies.

The Glen Ellen Women's Club was appealed to, and at once drafted resolutions showing their true womanly character and broad-minded attitude in the matter. Mrs. Richards and a committee of the Glen-Ellen club members then came to Sonoma and asked that the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club add its plea to the others to save a sick woman from going to jail.

Members of the "Moon Valley Card Club" present led the opposition to endorsement, backed up by two or three members who believed that the Sonoma club should never have mixed in the Fellers case from the start, and were even strongly opposed to the petition which the club sponsored some months ago.

Despite many expressions of sentiment fully as broad and charitable as that evidenced by the Glen Ellen Women's Club, the majority of the Sonoma club present backed up the persecution and aligned themselves with those whose Biblical teachings are strangely forgotten in their efforts to pose as moral uplifters, and whose social climb must be cherished above all things.

Nineteen members of the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club out of 125 women were present at the meeting last Friday, so the sentiment of the membership was hardly sounded out.

Startling statements were made on this occasion, however, by the leader of the opposition to clemency, a member of the county probation committee, to the effect that she believed the charge on which Mrs. Fellers was to be jailed was a frame-up; that other resorts had been protected during war-time prohibition by the official who was so active against the Fellers resort, and that this official, in her judgment, should be recalled for his shady transactions.

It was the consensus of opinion among club members that the incident was not to be spread broadcast, the matter not appearing in the official proceedings of the organization. However, having reached the ears of Sonoma's Christian editor, and being so thoroughly attuned to his consistent policy of going to church on Sunday and casting stones on every other occasion, it was eagerly seized on as a news story.

REAL MINSTRELS

For singing and dancing, none can excel the colored race, and it seems the cream of the colored talent has been brought into the Famous Georgia Minstrels, at least this company has established itself as a top-liner attraction, and is not thought of as a "nigger show," it being in the same class and character as any white minstrel, unless it be that it is superior, and the white people appreciating the efforts of these deserving people, are very liberal in their patronage.

So far this season, reports verify the fact that five nights out of the week, hundreds are turned away from the Famous Georgia Minstrels.

They will be at the Cline Theater, Santa Rosa, Wednesday night, March 17th. Sale of seats opens today. Prices, 50c, 75c and $1. No higher.

Joseph Elden, the well-known dairyman, returned home from the hospital in Napa last Sunday, and is recovering from the attack of blood-poisoning which cost him the loss of a finger. Mr. Elden's many friends are glad to know that he is all right again.

GENEROUS AID TO NEEDY FAMILY

Mrs. L. Pollini and Orphan Children
To Be Presented With Substantial
Sum By Friends and Neighbors.

Through the generosity of brother Druids and friends, the family of the late L. Pollini, who died of the flu, are being aided. The widow and her children were left in straitened financial circumstances, and a number of old bills were worrying the good helpmate of the industrious husband and father, who's untimely death has added the burden of debt to sorrow.

The Red Cross aided during the illness of the family, and have been giving assistance since the death of Mr. Pollini. The social service department, through Mrs. Green and Mrs. Johnson, will make application for orphan aid from the state.

The Druid Grove of San Francisco of which the deceased was a member will also help the children.

Through the kindness of A. Baccala, the following contributions have already been received. Anyone else wishing to contribute may communicate with Mr. Baccala or the Index-Tribune office:

MAKES FIRST OFFICIAL VISIT

District Deputy Grand Matron Burmeister of the Tenth District made her initial official visit to Keystone Chapter of Eastern Star at Napa Thursday night. Sonoma Valley's charming matron reviewed the work and was given a splendid reception, and was presented with a handsome gift by the lodge. The official was much pleased with the work as exemplified, and spoke highly of the membership of Keystone Chapter.

Spring flowers and a banquet-board set with the handsomest of linen, cut glass and china, was arranged in Mrs. Burmeister's honor. The banquet was par excellence, and at the conclusion the District Deputy was presented with a sterling silver berry spoon and a handsome bouquet.

Valley of the Moon Chapter was represented by Mesdames Whitmore, Stillings, and Misses McConoche and Arnot.

HOW TO GET YOUR EASTER BONNET

The Sonoma High School will conspire with the women of Sonoma Valley to cut the cost of high living. Any woman who can afford to purchase a spring bonnet these days is living high. The class organizes Tuesday, March 16th, at 2:20, and will convene twice a week, on Tuesday and Thursday, at the same hour. You will be dismissed at 4:20, just in time to go home and prepare the evening meal. Beginners as well as former members of the class are welcome.

THE WINE-GRAPE SITUATION

BACCHUS, though an outlaw in the United States at the present time, like the Devil, takes care of his own, at least we are led to think so by the reassuring outlook for the vineyardists of California. Just on the eve of prohibition, the vineyard industry seemed doomed. Many presaging ruin, tore out their vines and prepared for lean days, but an unprecedented demand astounded grape growers last year and this year with contracts already being made at $40 per ton, the outlook is most encouraging. Not only are independent buyers eager to contract for grapes, but a California Grape Growers Exchange is being organized. Through organization the growers hope to be able to handle their crops to the best advantage and stabilize the market. The business of grape-growing is not to be a temporary boom or boon, is foreseen in the object of the exchange, as follows: "Promoting, fostering and encouraging the business of growing grapes, and aiding in the marketing, processing, warehousing, storing and distribution thereof; also the exploiting of domestic and foreign markets for California grapes in any processed form, such as raisins, syrup, etc. The obligation imposed on the vineyardist to conduct the exchange is to contribute fifty cents per ton, based on the tonnage of fresh grapes in 1919 in his vineyard. The association asks members to sign up for 1920, 1921 and 1922.

The grower agrees to allow the organization to fix the selling prices of fresh grapes or processed products, whether raisins, syrups or unfermented juice.

Wine-grape growers sign up for all their crop. If the grower can get more than the price established by the exchange, he may get the consent of the exchange to make an independent sale, providing he pays a two and one-half per cent penalty.

There is a world of reassurance and optimism in the paragraph of the organization's prospectus which asks "If wine-making should be permitted by law, could a member of the exchange sell his grapes to a winery for wine-making?" Answer: Yes. The marketing agreement specifically releases grapes for local use.

The terms for purchases are cash, with a substantial cash payment accompanying the order, and sufficient credit established at the same time for payment on delivery.

There are penalties provided for the violation of the agreement by a member of the exchange.

Whether or not Sonoma Valley vineyardists affiliate with the exchange, they are being assured splendid offers for the crop of 1920, local buyers pledging themselves to pay better than the best offer of the exchange.

In view of the above facts, the wine-grape grower is faring well, but those who possess wine which they were not able to dispose of in the short period antedating national prohibition are in a serious and cruel predicament. They cannot borrow on it, or even insure the property which was formerly their capital. Though possessed of thousands of gallons of wine, they are impoverished because of the confiscation of their right to sell it and the confiscation of the buyer's right to buy it. The prohibition law has confiscated virtually everything but the thirst of the individual who would drink it. This creates the situation from which lawlessness arises, for the man who cannot lawfully dispose of it is either tempted to evade or disregard the law, or he must take the chance of being robbed by offenders who will break it, and turn the liquor which has no value in the cellar into big money when a way is found to get it out.

The government should buy every drop on hand at a fair price, and thus reduce the problem to proportions where it might be more practicable to solve. This arrangement would put capital into the hands of many worthy people, and enable them to embark in other line of production.

Sonoma county is facing the possibility of losing $1,000,000 of its properties' assessed valuation, due to the fact that wine, formerly so valuable, has now no value since outlawed. This $1,000,000 on which the wine men were compelled formerly to pay taxes, can no longer be assessed to them, it is believed, and in order to offset this loss, the $1,000,000 must come out of the people's pockets. This is but a local phase of the financial side of prohibition. The loss of revenue and the cost of enforcement are going to make prohibition justify its presence on our statute books pretty promptly, or it will fall hard, like other Utopian schemes.

DRIVES ARE POPULAR AS MONEY-GETTERS

We formerly had illustrations of the meaning of the terms "tip," "tag day," or "touch." Now such words are not forceful enough, so the country is being infested with "drives," and gonges of various sorts, which are the superlative degree of money-getting. We deplored and objected to the tip nuisance, and it has been gradually becoming less obtrusive than formerly, but in its place has come such compulsory demand that we almost wish ourselves back in the period when tipping gave us the flattering sense of volition or voluntary bestowal of gratuities. The colored wage-earners are to be organized. Regardless of personal service now, all travelers will pay the price. If you are not so particular as the well-groomed traveling man in front of you, and your grips are nearer paper than leather, the porter attached to your car will cost you just as much as the other fellow. Union wages will come out of the pocket of the travelling public.

Tag days have been replaced by the brusque war term "drives," and they are so numerous and so popular, particularly with the churches, that we begin to hope that perhaps the plate for the usual Sunday offering will soon disappear at the Sunday service, relegated to obscurity by the more effective and remunerative "drive," a huge periodic clean-up. The up-to-date drive on the public pocket-book is something to be reckoned with, but we opine there will be no day of reckoning until business and wages get back to normal. The public will then rub its eyes and wonder why it did not practice thrift when practicing was good, and the contribution boxes may then be dusted off and passed around as of yore.

VOTE YES when the street-bond election day comes. Take the no out of Sonoma. Our sister city, Napa, has a slogan, "Take the Nap out of Napa." Wake up, everybody!

AS WE BEHOLD thousands of baby chicks being shipped out of Sonoma Valley, we can be assured that Sonoma cockerels will be crowing in all parts of the West before many months; that thousands of Sonoma Valley eggs will reach the markets, and eventually thousands of Sonoma old hens will be consigned to the fricassee. Sonoma Valley's baby chick business is the contributing factor of much prosperity and a great industry, and other prosperity and industries flourish as the chicks from Sonoma Valley grow up to demand variety of rations, more roomy quarters, and many care-takers. The baby-chick business is no infant industry, if it don't make as much noise as a boiler factory.

REGISTRATION OF VOTERS to cast their ballots at the coming city election closed yesterday, and it is to be hoped that when our street bond election is held and the votes counted, Sonoma will show a 100 per cent progressive citizenship. The property-owner realizes that better streets will immediately make property more valuable, and every voter realizes that the money now spent on temporary repairs and upkeep on our streets will help to pay off the bonded indebtedness. While there is a temporary depression in the municipal bond market, local bankers assure us that this is only a passing condition, and that Sonoma's municipal street bonds will sell readily. Opportunity will knock at our door on election day. All other knockers stay home.

TRUTH IS STRANGER THAN FICTION, and often more humorous, as is instanced by the recent "whiskey riot," so-called, which Major Dalrymple charged the offenders, like Don Quixote's windmills. He planned a wonderful piece of grandstand prohibition work, until he actually arrived on the scene and encountered the honest-to-God officials of the county, who called his bluff and sent him home. Major Dalrymple's over-zealous move in the interest of his government's new-fangled law and its closed season for drinking, possessing drink or making preparations therefor, was as fine a piece of comedy as has come out of the situation dating from July or January last. The mere reporter or commentator is not equal to the fine literary possibilities therein. It is worthy of a Christopher Morley, of "Sweet Dry and Dry" fame.

SPRING TRAINING AT VERANO

Parent's Scene of Much Activity Under Former U. S. Army Boxing Instructor Harry Fine.

El Verano, March 10th. There has been much activity around Joe White's place during the last week. Sergeant Harlan Bunker, a large heavy-weight from Presidio, has been training there under the direction of Harry Fine, former U. S. Army boxing instructor in the A. E. F. Several of the San Francisco boxers took this advantage, and came up here, and they are all impressed with the wonderful climate and scenery of the Sonoma Valley.

A large swimming tank is now under course of construction, which, when completed, will make this the best training camp for athletes in the country. Many boxers will train here during the next summer. Harry Fine will be here again in a few weeks to take charge of the training camp.

"Wild" Willie Webb is now in Taft, where he is to box the champion of that city. After that he will be back in San Francisco to box Dick Doolin on March 15th. He should win both bouts.

Joe White is now fully recovered from the "flu," and is getting into condition to box some of the better boys at his weight in San Francisco. Harry Fine is supervising his training.

"Buck" Holley is expected back here today. Buck likes this valley, and in his training runs to Glen Ellen daily.

"Wild" Willie Webb has learned a few punch that he calls the "telephone" punch. He claims that it has a kick.

ROBERT DUNLAP'S WIFE DIES

Mrs. Robert Dunlap, who resided with her husband on the Lehrke ranch in this Valley some time ago, and more recently had made her home at Kenwood, died last Wednesday at that place. Mrs. Dunlap was a pretty young woman, and came here a bride, winning many friends during her residence here. She was a lead-sburg girl, and her untimely death was recorded as follows in the Lead-sburg Tribune of last week:

The community was deeply shocked Wednesday morning to learn of the death Tuesday night, at her home in Kenwood, of Mrs. Florence Brown Dunlap, one of the best known and universally respected young matrons of this section.

The cause of death was spinal meningitis, following an attack of influenza. Mrs. Dunlap, who had influenza about a year ago, was again attacked by the malady about ten days ago, and the complications set in later.

Florence Brown, daughter of Thos. P. Brown of Healdsburg, was born in this city January 8, 1895. She was married to Robert E. Dunlap, a young man well known here, and they took up their home at Kenwood. Mrs. Dunlap spent her youth in this community, and was known as "Queenie" by her close friends. She is survived by her sorrowing husband, a son six months old, Robert Ellis Dunlap, her father, Thomas P. Brown, and George and Granger Brown, brothers.

Mrs. Greeley of La Jolla is visiting her daughter, Mrs. L. S. Simmons, at her pretty home on Second street East.

The business directory of Boyes Springs now boasts a meat market which has started up in the pool parlor there.

THE VILLAIN STILL PURSUES US

Petaluma to Draw the Line at Feeble-Minded Home, But Wants Sonoma Valley in New County.

The following article is taken from the Petaluma Courier of March 7th, and shows that the pirates are still after Sonoma Valley for their new county. It is interesting to note that they draw the line at the Feeble-Minded Home. We were of the opinion that they hoped to take in the feeble-minded of Sonoma Valley, but now it appears that Petaluma is after the best of us:

"Petaluma is the name of the proposed new county, and the Sonoma Valley will be included. Northern Marin county will be left out of the present proceedings, with a view to annexing Northern Marin, should the present proceedings prove successful. These were the conclusions drawn by the Committee of Fifteen at the meeting last night at the office of Attorney F. A. Meyer. Expressions from citizens of Northern Marin, who stated that they did not want to be left out, were considered but the committee decided that it was best to leave Marin out for the present, particularly from the fact that the tax rate of the proposed new county cannot be proved to be as low as the present Marin tax rate, although it shows a reduction in the Sonoma county tax rate of 80 cents on the $100.

"The line on the north will be drawn almost due east and west from a point about a mile north of Cotati. It will run to the Napa line. An examination of the map will show that this will not include Kenwood or Glen Ellen. The line will cross the Sonoma Valley somewhere near the Elbridge Home.

An educational campaign will be started in the Sonoma Valley soon. Explanatory literature, showing the reduction in taxes and the advantages will be mailed to all the voters of the Sonoma Valley. As yet the entire matter is not understood in Sonoma, but it will all be explained in detail.

The expert report, verified by H. M. Meacham, for twenty years assessor of Napa county, was considered, and is recommended to voters. It contains the assessed valuation of the property in the proposed new county, with a list of expenditures. The tax rate as figured shows $1.90 inside and $2.30 outside, the outside rate being 80 cents less than the present rate in Sonoma county. The comparison of expenditures is made with San Benito county, which is the nearest county in size as to population and property valuation. In compliance with the law, the new county will go into the San Benito class. When published, these figures will be found to have allowed plenty of money for all expenditures, good roads and development. A number of expenses included in the estimate could be taken off, so that it is more than possible, if the new county becomes a reality, that the outside tax rate will be as low as $2.00.

Some more untrue statements have been passed out in the Sonoma Valley recently, one being that Petaluma was compelled to include Sonoma Valley in the territory, in order to make up the requisite population and area. This is not the case. The law does not specify any particular amount of territory at all to form a new county. As to population, 8000 people are necessary, and there are more than 12,000 in the proposed territory on this side of the Sonoma mountains. People in Petaluma, as well as those in the Sonoma Valley, who understand the matter, know that it is best for the people on both sides of the mountains that the Sonoma Valley be included. It is of strong benefit to Sonoma Valley, as it will mean better development, better roads and a saving of taxes. The advertising now being given Petaluma will greatly benefit the Valley of the Moon, if the Valley of the Moon becomes a part of Petaluma county.

As to the advertising, we rather guess that the Valley of the Moon would advertise Petaluma, but the late Jack London did not make his beloved valley famous through his book to boost Petaluma's egg sales. The following resolution opposing county division was passed by the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club, and forwarded to the Petaluma Chamber of Commerce:

Whereas, There is a movement under way to divide Sonoma county, whereby Petaluma and contiguous territory is to be the nucleus of a new county, to be known as San Antonio county; and whereas, Sonoma Valley has been invited to join in said movement and to become a part of the new county of San Antonio; and whereas, Petaluma has expressed a desire to know something of the sentiment of Sonoma Valley toward the plan to include Sonoma Valley; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club, representing over 125 members in every section of the Sonoma Valley, deprecates the division of Sonoma county, one of the old and

PIONEER FAMILY TO RESIDE IN SAN FRANCISCO

Mr. and Mrs. William Sobbe and family, after a residence of thirty-five years in Glen Ellen, have gone to San Francisco to make their future home. The leave-taking of these kind friends and neighbors is regretted by everyone in the locality where they have so long resided.

At the farewell party arranged in their honor last week by Steve Prout and the Women's Improvement Club, Mrs. Sobbe was presented with a handsome library table by the club, and there were many other gifts showered upon the esteemed couple.

The party took place at Mayflower Hotel, and there were songs by Miss Ethel Small and other entertainment, including cards, and an elaborate banquet. The hall was crowded with friends of the family, and many were the good wishes bestowed upon the Sobbes on the eve of their departure from the old home town. The old folks go to the metropolis to make a home for their sons, who are employed there. Milton Sobbe is studying law.

majestic counties of our Golden State, and expresses most decided opposition to any effort on the part of Petaluma to include in their plans Sonoma Valley, whose history is so interwoven with the county which bears its name that it can never be dissociated with it, nor can its loyal citizenry be swayed by economic or financial arguments to affiliate with any new political unit.

And be it further ordered, that a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the Chamber of Commerce of Petaluma, and given to the press for the information of those active in the fixing of new boundary lines for the aforementioned new county.

Signed, AMELIA BATES, Chairman of Committee on Resolutions.

FUNERAL OF C. E. DEANE LAST SATURDAY

The funeral of C. E. Deane took place Saturday, and was attended by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Deane of Montana, San Mateo county, and by relatives from Cupertino, Los Angeles and San Francisco. The remains were placed temporarily in the receiving vault at Mountain Cemetery.

Mrs. Deane and children may return to her old home in Scotland.

A sad coincidence of the death of the well-known young orchardist was the fact that just the day previous the funeral of the original owner of the ranch occurred here. Mr. Frank La Vigne was the owner of the Deane place many years ago, and built the house on the place which Mr. Deane cultivated with so much care during the few short years he was destined to live in Sonoma Valley.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. R. E. Murphy, C. McCosker, D. Volquardsen and O. Wagner.

NEWLY-ELECTED OFFICERS OF WOMAN'S CLUB

The regular business meeting of the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club on Friday, March 5th, brought out a goodly number of members. The President, Mrs. L. V. Emparan, being absent on account of illness, the meeting was conducted by the Vice-President, Mrs. Perle Hunter.

Mrs. Maud Studley, upon reconsidering her resignation as Corresponding Secretary, signified her willingness to serve, thus leaving but one trustee to be chosen, all other offices being filled at the primaries last month. Mrs. Dora Stofen was duly elected to the trusteeship.

The officers for the ensuing year are as follows:

President, Mrs. L. V. Emparan; Vice-President, Mrs. Perle Hunter; Treasurer, Mrs. Ella Woodworth; Recording Secretary, Mrs. C. A. Burdame; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Maud Studley; Civic Section, Mrs. C. G. Murphy; Trustees—Mrs. C. J. Lowell, Mrs. G. H. Hotz, Mrs. Pauline Hays, Mrs. Emma Watt, Mrs. Dora Stofen.

A pleasing report was given by Mrs. Robert Potter Hill regarding the particulars of the gift of the old Mission bell to the club by Mrs. Emma Merritt. This report was most enthusiastically received, and a standing ovation of thanks was tendered to Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Stofen for their signal success in getting the bell. These ladies were also authorized to carry forward arrangements for the repairing and installing of the bell.

Details of the President's reception, to be held on the evening of Friday, the 19th instant, were discussed, and needed committees appointed. Each member of the club is to invite a friend, gentlemen as well as ladies, so that a large attendance is expected, and a joyous social event is anticipated.

Catarhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarhal deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarhal deafness. Halls' Catarrh Medicine acts through the blood on the mucous surface of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Halls' Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists, etc.
